Separate bench of Karnataka High Court

1453. DR. KARAN SINGH: Will the Minister of LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether a delegation led by Chief Minister of Karnataka demanding a separate bench of Karnataka High Court for North Karnataka called on the Prime Minister on June 22, 2000;

(b) if so, the case presented by the delegation;

(c) the decision taken thereon;

(d) whether any other proposals for setting up additional benches of various High Courts are under consideration; and

(e) if so, the details thereof and at what stage the same stand at present?

THE MINISTER OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI ARUN JAITLEY) : (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The delegation requested for setting up a permanent Bench of the Karnataka High Court at Hubli-Dharwad.

(c) The Chief Justice of the Karnataka High Court has conveyed that it is neither desirable nor feasible to establish a Bench of the High Court at any place away from the principal seat. The setting up a Bench of a High Court, away from the principal seat, is normally considered on the receipt of a complete proposal from the concerned State Government in consultation with the Chief Justice of that High Court.

(d) and (e) The Government has received complete proposals for setting up of Benches of the Madras High Court and the Calcutta High Court respectively from the Chief Ministers of Tamil Nadu and West Bengal in consultation with the Chief Justice of the concerned High Courts. Accordingly, it is proposed to establish a Bench of the Madras High Court at Madurai and a Bench of the Calcutta High Court at Jalpaiguri, after infrastructural facilities like court buildings, accomodation for Judges etc. are provided by the respective State Governments to the satisfaction of the High Court.
